THE SENTINEL AT NEW ORLEANS.

To accommodate the throng from the Northwest who will desire to read their favorite home paper while attending the "World's Exposition," the Sentinel has been placed on sale in New Orleans at George F. Wharton & Bro's, No. 5 Carondelet street, between Canal and Common streets.

OLD PAPERS.

Good conditioned old papers for sale at this office at only 40 cents per hundred.

CITY IN BRIEF.

The Mayor fined Scott Baker in two cases, and an appeal was taken to the Criminal Court.

An unknown lady lost a pocket-book containing $25 yesterday afternoon on Central avenue.

"Squire Jenkins is trying a paternity suit instituted by Leida Bacon against John Pressler.

The work of laying brick on the State-house will begin next week, providing the weather continues warm.

Nick McCarthy, a small boy charged with the theft of two bicycles was arrested yesterday by Patrolman Hine.

A three-year-old child, on South Meridian street, below McCarthy, was attacked yesterday by a shepherd dog and badly bitten in the hip.

Frank M. Wright, in his damage suit against the city, yesterday received a verdict for $2,750. His leg was broken by a fall on the sidewalk opposite the "Fancy Bazaar."

A remarkable automaton is on exhibition in the window of the Model clothing establishment. It lifts a cigarette to its mouth and a pair of glasses to the eyes as daintily as the most accomplished dukes of the city.

There was a "head end" collision yesterday morning on the I. & W. Eastern Division, near New Madison. Both engines were badly wrecked and freight cars were scattered in every direction. No one was hurt.

The Marion County Agricultural and Horticultural Society will hold their March meeting at the State Agricultural Rooms at 1:30 this afternoon. Mr. W. A. Ennis will read an essay on "How to Take the First Premium." Professor Hay, of Butler University, a paper, subject to be announced hereafter. Officers for the ensuing year will be elected.

An empty valise was found yesterday at the Scott street crossing of the Belt. The valise was locked, but a large hole had been cut in the side through which the contents had no doubt been removed. The valise is in charge of the police.

At the meeting of the Board of Commissioners for the construction of additional Hospitals for the Insane yesterday afternoon in the Governor's office, bills aggregating $2,000 were allowed. Work on the new asylums will begin in earnest next month.

Daniel Smith was arrested yesterday on Grand Jury warrants from Monroe County for perjury and carrying concealed weapons. He was sent on the next train to Bloomington. He is the man whom the Sheriff arrested here about a year ago for assault and battery with intent to kill the Marshal of Bloomington.

Messrs. Duden, Bradford, Brown, Case, Taylor and Thomas, delegates from this city to the National Convention of the Order of the Iron Hall at Baltimore, which was held this week, were refused admittance upon a technical point by the officers in charge. There is now talk of a suit in the courts here under the Indiana laws to enforce their rights.

That Sunday Base Ball Bill.

The directors, stockholders and all others interested in the Indianapolis base ball club feel anything but happy over the passage of the bill prohibiting Sunday base ball playing, and it has been said that they were already devising means to evade the law. There is no foundation whatever for this statement according to the officers of the association. An evening paper gives space to a rumor that it is the intention of the management to give Sunday afternoon concerts at the College Avenue Park with a game of ball thrown in, but not advertised as the attraction for which the admission fee is charged. This, it says, will be their method of evading the law.

A Sentinel reporter met President Schwabacher at the Bates House last night, and questioned him with regard to the above rumor. "There is no truth in it," said Mr. Schwabacher, "and," he added, "I wish you would deny it. The bill will have to go back to the House for concurrence, and the Governor's signature must be attached to it before it becomes a law. We have, therefore, given the matter less consideration than we would were it to become a law at once. I can't say whether we will play Sunday games or not. That is a question to be determined in the future."

Superintendent Lang Arrested.
Some time ago a Constable named Reinhold entered mandamus proceedings against Superintendent Lang to compel him to arrest Flora Ballard, the keeper of a house of ill-fame. The Superintendent answered that the warrant had been served, and the suit was dismissed. Yesterday Lang was arrested on a warrant presumably sworn out by Lillie Crawford, an inmate of the Ballard bagnio, charging him with perjury. The Superintendent immediately gave bond, and the case is set for trial to-day. The Crawford girl, who was arrested by Reinhold night before last, taken out to "Squire Emerich and fined under the ill-fame law, and whose name is attached to the affidavit charging Lang with perjury, says that she never intended to make such a charge against the Superintendent, and further that she signed no such paper. She says that after the proceedings in the prosecution against her had closed, she signed a paper, but she did not read it and supposed it was the closing up of the case against herself. She was as much surprised yesterday as was the Superintendent to find that her name was attached to such a paper.

Lacerated by a Dog.

A son of James Dwyer, of Linden street, while playing on the street about 7 o'clock Thursday evening, was attacked by a bulldog and terribly injured. The dog threw him down and then began biting him on the right leg. The boy, who is only thirteen years of age, was unable to escape, and could only scream for help. His elder brother, aged about twenty years, ran to his assistance, but was unable to take the brute off until he had choked it nearly to death. The animal then struggled to be released, but the young man fearing lest it turn and attack him, held on. The owner of the dog then came and took the dog home. Mr. Dwyer's son was taken in and put to bed, and Dr. McMillen was called and the injuries dressed. It was found that the leg was terribly bitten from the hip to the ankle, and the dog's teeth met in twelve different places.

Wanted for Theft.

W. P. Elliott, of the sleeping car ticket office, received a dispatch last night from Philadelphia asking him to have the police look after a man on the car "Dominics," due here at 10 a. m. from St. Louis. The party to be looked after was described, and is thought to be the person who robbed a passenger on the train. As the car arrived yesterday morning, the dispatch came nearly half a day late. The day officers at the depot, however, observed a man answering the description step off the car who had told the conductor he was bound for Greenfield. A hunt was made for him last night, but without result. The much wanted individual is charged with the theft of $150 from a traveler.

The Fertilizing Company.
The annual report of the Indianapolis Fertilizing Company was filed with the Secretary of State yesterday, showing the total liabilities and assets to be $50,032.67. According to the statement the factory and machinery are valued at $32,633.18, stock on hand $11,904.03, bills receivable $11,463.10. The company at its recent annual meeting re-elected the old officers.

A Serious Fall.

Yesterday morning Mrs. Johnson, the mother-in-law of Policeman Henry Pope, residing at 105 North West street, slipped and fell on a spot of ice and fractured the fifth and sixth ribs on the left side. She is now suffering from acute pleurisy. Mrs. Johnson is eighty-two years of age.
